

Peru Interagency Committee on Trade in Timber Products from Peru

On May 1, 2009 President Barack Obama formally established the Interagency Committee on Trade in Timber Products from Peru. The committee comprises representatives from the Office of the United States Trade Representative (USTR), the Department of Justice, Department of Agriculture, Department of the Interior, and the Department of State, with USTR as the Chair of the Committee. Representatives from the Department of Homeland Security and the United States Agency for International Development are participating on the Committee as observers.

Any person or group that would like to provide information for consideration by the Interagency Committee concerning trade in timber products from Peru should submit it to EnvironmentComments@ustr.eop.gov.
